

Blackout Poetry

An open call to all artists to create poetry from existing publications by blacking out words to leave a poem.

An exhibit at the Main Street Gallery, 330 Main Street, April 7th- 28th, 2023

Submissions accepted through Friday, March 31, 6:30 pm at 330 Main Street

An open call to all artists working in ANY medium to submit up to 2 pieces of original never seen before artwork to create an exhibit at the Main Street Gallery. Artists are invited to submit pieces ready to exhibit at the Main Street Gallery. $30 submission fee, or FREE to Members of the KAAHC. All exhibit submissions will debut at the Opening Reception on Friday, April 7, 2023, from 5:00 - 7:00 pm. The exhibit will also be available to view or purchase online at www.ketchikanarts.org. Artwork may or may not be for sale. The Main Street Gallery retains a 25% gallery commission on all sales please reflect that in your pricing. Artists will have the opportunity to participate in a promotional segment, the "Main Street Minute" a production of KPU TV! If you would like to take advantage of this opportunity you need to be at the Main Street Gallery on Tuesday April 11th by 11:00 am. Unsold artwork must be picked up from the Gallery starting at 3:00 pm on April 28th and no later than May 2nd, by 5:00 pm. All two-dimensional entries must be and ready to hang with wires, saw-toothed hangers, etc. Cardboard and plastic hooks are not acceptable. All three-dimensional entries must be ready for display. If you have a great idea please check in advance with the Arts and Humanities Council to ensure that we can accommodate your idea.
